1. The Director had breakfast with 14 members of the S.O.S. Club, a group of sophomore Republican Congressmen. The Deputies, Mr. Kirkpatrick and I also attended. Following breakfast, the Director answered specific questions on a variety of subjects. Messrs. Wainwright and Frelinghuysen raised the problem of the Mansfield Resolution, and the Director stated his views in full as to the objections to the bill, which largely relate to the Staff problem. Following the meeting, the Director invited Frelinghuysen and Wainwright to visit him again to discuss this matter in more detail. Also at the conclusion of the meeting, Congressman Bentley informed me that in the near future he would like to get together with those in this Agency who have been considering the problem of [redacted]

2. Received a call from Mr. Naughton of the Staff of the House Intergovernmental Operations Subcommittee. He informed me that the Committee was now attempting to get further information on shipments from ONI, and that they would accordingly not contact Mr. Dulles at this time. I did promise Mr. Naughton I would expedite forwarding to him of the list of the unclassified publications which [redacted] now is working on. (cc: [redacted] ORR)
